Their performances of "The Mikado" have so far met with the success that was predicted for them, and even better results may be expected from "Mynheer Jan," which has the merit of novelty. It has not been produced here often enough to become familiar to the public, and the quaintness of its ideas and costuming combined with the beauty of its music cannot fail to secure it the highest appreciation. The scene of the opera is laid in Holland during the time when that country is occupied by the Spaniards. The cast will include W. T. Carleton, Jeannie Winston, Alice Vincent, J. K. Murray, W. H. The Bostons defeated the Nationals for the third time yesterday, although Snyder's men made a game fight for victors Harry Mace pitched an excellent game and was well supported, but the Bostons were lucky in getting in their hits when men were on the bases. O'Brien did the twirling for the Bostons and did it very effectively, too. The game was close throughout, but Mace got wild in the seventh and gave five bases on balls, and this, followed by a wild throw by Hatfield, yielded three runs.

Smith made his first appearance in a National uniform and did excellently, making two hits, one of them for two bases, and took care of everything which went to him. Dowd made the star play of the game, stopping a hard-hit ball to centre field and throwing to first in tim o catch the runner. The score by innings:
